

Blues may make changes

WYCOMBE WANDERERS, who dropped to sixth place in the Rothmans Isthmian League table after Tuesday night's defeat at Hendon, are likely to make changes for tomorrow's (Saturday) visit of Bishop's Stortford.

Geoff Anthony, who has been out for two weeks with a pulled thigh muscle, is now fit and may return in place of Dylan Evans. The latter had a disappointing game at Claremont Road. Manager Brian Lee could also make other changes in his effort to find more punch in the forward line.

After a poor start to the season, Stortford have been returning some good results recently. They have had to rebuild their side as only four of their squad remain from last season — Peter Leakey, the new skipper, Kevin Mulkern, John McKenzie and Peter Watson. Centre forward Watson is unlikely to play tomorrow, however, because of an injury.

The key players who have left are Dave Lawrence and Martin Smith, who both joined their former manager, Ted Hardy, at Enfield, and their excellent goalkeeper, Terry Moore, is now with Ilford. The new players are Paul Kitson (from Barking), Brian Davis (Enfield), Colin Harris (local), Fred Flack (Epping), Vic Clark (Wingate), Alan Vickers (College), Kenny Gaine (Enfield) and Peter Twigg (Hayes).

Their results so far are as follows: Lost at Barking 3-1, lost at Enfield 2-0, beat Clapton at home 4-0, lost at home to Hitchin 2-1, won at Leytonstone 2-0, lost at home to Hendon 3-1, beat Leatherhead at home 3-2 and beat Walthamstow at home 1-0.
